Full Response Bulletin for In-Person Worship

The 8th Sunday after Pentecost, 2021

The Altar Flowers today are given by Beck Sullivan to the Glory of God and in Thanksgiving for Ben Sullivan's birthday on July 21.

Thank you for joining us to worship our risen Lord! We are operating with some important limitations so we can avoid becoming a source of transmission of Covid-19. Thank you for your patience & cooperation!

1. Persons who are not fully vaccinated must continue to wear masks indoors—for their own safety and for the safety of other unvaccinated persons. (Masks do not need to be worn by anyone outdoors.) Some parents may choose to wear masks in solidarity with their children who are not yet eligible for vaccination. Similarly, our clergy are willing to wear masks indoors in solidarity with those who are not yet fully vaccinated so as to help mitigate a sense of isolation from others in the worshipping community.
2. Persons who are not fully vaccinated should refrain from singing indoors. All vaccinated persons are invited to sing along with the hymns and service music at our 10:30 liturgy.
3. Persons who are not fully vaccinated should continue to maintain 3 feet of social distance from other households. Our ushers can assist with seating, if you would find that helpful.
4. At the exchange of the peace, we will remain in place, greeting those within our households as we wish, but without physical contact or closer proximity to those of other households.
5. At the distribution of Communion, our ushers will invite households to the center aisle. Please extend your open hand(s) so the priest can drop the Consecrated bread into your palm. Step to either side of the clergy and consume the Consecrated Bread and return to your pew by the side aisles.
6. Please do not congregate in the narthex. Rather, proceed outdoors to greet the clergy and one another on the patio.

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The people stand.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, by the power of the Holy Spirit, he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son, he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The people kneel.

The priest introduces the prayers:

Kneeling together, let us pray for the Church and for the world, offering the names associated with our thanksgivings and intercessions either silently or aloud, and then joining the congregational refrain by responding, "Hear our Prayer."

Intercessor:

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence, during which names & relevant prayers may be added.

Lord, in your mercy People: Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Silence, during which names & relevant prayers may be added.

Lord, in your mercy People: Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence, during which names & relevant prayers may be added.

Lord, in your mercy People: Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Silence, during which names & relevant prayers may be added.

Lord, in your mercy People: Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Silence, during which names & relevant prayers may be added.

Lord, in your mercy People: Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence, during which names & relevant prayers may be added.

Lord, in your mercy People: Hear our prayer.

The celebrant prays the concluding collect for prayers of the people:

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O Lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution	The people remain kneeling.
--------------------------------------	------------------------------------

The priest bids the confession, saying: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor:

Priest and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The people stand.

The Celebrant says to the people, The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The people respond, And also with you.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

There is a container for your offerings in the center aisle at the back of the Church.

The Great Thanksgiving

Prayer A

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant gives thanks for the gifts of God, and the people respond with the hymn,

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The people may continue to stand—or kneel—for the remainder of this prayer.

In the midst of the Great Thanksgiving, the people join in declaring the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again...

At the conclusion of the prayer, the people respond, Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Distribution of Gifts

Each person comes forward, one household at a time to receive the Consecrated Bread.

The priest says: The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven.

When one or more Eucharistic Visitors are sent out to distribute the Holy Gifts to our homebound parishioners, the celebrant dismisses them with a prayer, and all the people respond, praying:

We who are many are one body, for we all share one bread, one cup.

Postcommunion Thanksgiving Prayer The people stand.

After Communion, the Celebrant and People have been strengthened to stand and pray,

Eternal God, heavenly Father,

you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

At the 10:30 a.m. liturgy, following the blessing, the closing hymn is:

#334

The Dismissal

Priest: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.
