

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Full Response Bulletin for In-Person Worship

The 6th Sunday of Easter, 2022

May 22, 2022

10:30 a.m.

The Altar Flowers are given today by Altar Guild Team 3 to the Glory of God and in thanksgiving for Kathy Lundy's leadership of St. Peter's Altar Guild.

The Sanctuary Candle is given today by Ken & Emelyn Shabel to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Ron Shabel.

Welcome to St. Peter's Episcopal Church!

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us. This bulletin has been created from the prayers found in the Book of Common Prayer, and it contains all of the spoken parts of our worship. The Hymnal in your pew rack contains the hymns we will sing.

All are welcomed to our altar at Communion. Baptized Christians (in any Church) are invited to receive the Sacrament of bread and wine. We are not presently drinking from the chalice. You may intinct (dip) the edge of your Consecrated Bread into the Consecrated Wine.

If you prefer to receive only the Consecrated Bread, simply depart from the rail after you have consumed the Sacrament.

If you would like to receive a blessing from the priest, you may indicate your desire for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

Most of all, be assured that the people of St. Peter's are willing to assist if you desire help. We are glad you're here, and grateful for your contribution to our common prayer this morning!

Please note: This liturgy is being recorded for livestream broadcast. Only wide-angle shots are recorded of the altar chancel area at communion.

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The people stand.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, by the power of the Holy Spirit, he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son, he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People The people remain standing for the prayers during the season of Easter.

Priest Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Intercessor Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The clergy and people offer the names of those for whom we pray, silently or aloud.

The Celebrant then prays a concluding collect.

During the Great Fifty Days of Easter, the confession is omitted as we emphasize the joy of the forgiving work that God has done for us through Christ.

The Peace The people remain standing.

The Celebrant says to the people, The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The people respond, And also with you.

The Offertory When the offerings are presented, the people sing:

All things come of thee, O Lord; and of thine own have we given thee.

The Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving

Prayer D

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord
our God.

People: It is right to give God
thanks and praise.

The Celebrant gives thanks for the gifts of God, and the people respond with the hymn,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand as the Celebrant continues. Since the Council of Nicea (325 A.D.) Christians have been encouraged to stand for prayers during the Easter Season in order to embody the reality that we have been raised with Christ. If it is a physical hardship to stand, please be seated.

In the midst of the Great Thanksgiving, the people respond in declaring:

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

At the conclusion of the prayer, the people sing,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

The choir and people sing,

The Celebrant then says the following invitation: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The choir and people sing,

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: grant us peace, grant us peace.

The Distribution of Gifts

The people come forward to receive Holy Communion.

Communion Hymn

204

When one or more Eucharistic Visitors are sent out to distribute the Holy Gifts to our homebound parishioners, the celebrant dismisses them with a prayer, and all the people respond, praying:

We who are many are one body, for we all share one bread, one cup.

Postcommunion Thanksgiving Prayer The people stand.

After Communion, the Celebrant and People have been strengthened to stand and pray,

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members
of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ,
and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage
to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the people.

The Dismissal, with Easter Alleluias!

Priest: Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
